His Mission Is Facts

Richard McGarrah Helms

	Richard Mc	Garran Heims
A W P I A P W W AND	· . · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	15Apa71
		FARW TOTA TIMES
	WASHINGTON, April 14-	Kappa, class president, schoo	!
	In early 1969, Secretary of	newspaper editor and year Defense Melvin R. Laird told the Senate Foreign Relations	book editor. His classmates	3
	— Committee the Soviet Union	voted him "most likely to succeed," "most respected," was "going for a first-strike	"the one who had done the capability" in building new	most for Williams" and "class intercontinental missiles. At	politician."
	about the same time, the	He went to Europe as a committee heard Richard Mc-Garrah Helms, Di- Man rector of Central	Press and soon made a name	·
	Intelligence give	for himself by getting an ex- clusive interview with Hitler in the a professional es-	Financial and personal and the state of t	News timate that the	problems cut short his career Soviet Union was	as a foreign correspondent.	.
	concentrating on defensive	however, and he returned to	· missiles. Later, on June 23, shortly before the Senate be-	the United States in 1937 as national advertising manager gan a debate on an antiballis-	of The Indianapolis Times.	1 tic-missile system, both men	War a Turning Doing appeared at the same closed	the state of the s session of the committee to	World War II was a turn- ing point for Mr. Helms. He resolve the apparent difference.	was assigned to the Office of	- }
	According to reports from	Strategic Services because of	' some of those who attended	his linguistic and other tal-the session, Mr. Laird retreat-	the said has done nothing ed partly from his original	but intelligence work since. After the war, he began to •	position, while Mr. Helms deferred to the Administration's view without changing his	newly created Central Intel-earlier testimony.	ligence Agency. Associates say it was his capacity for
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	Respected Figure	work, his patience, his knowledge and understanding of This ability to keep intact	government and his "profes-	ļ, his reputation as a speaker of facts, while avoiding the	sionalism" — traits they say	, political fights that emerge	they still admire in him—that around them, makes the 58	brought him quickly to a top
	-I year-old, tall and dark Mr.	position in the agency in the early nineteen-fifties.
	Helms one of the most re-	He stayed near the top for spected men in Washington. "Helms is great with Con-	, nearly 15 years under such gress," a Senate staff offi-	men as Allen Dulles, Richard cial said recently, "He ad-	M. Bissell, John A. McCone mits when he doesn't know	and Vice Adm. William F. Raborn.
	something. He never lies."	Then, in 1966, President President Nixon went out	Johnson named Richard	1.
	of his way last May in a television news conference to	Helms—he prefers his middle
	emphasize that "Director	name not be used—as Direc-Helms" played a key role in	tor of Central Intelligence. Besides the role of senior in-
	- the Administration as one of	telligence adviser to the Pres-
N. A. T	his advisers.	ident and Congress, the job	· · · ·
NEW YORK TIMES 15 APRIL 1971	And today, many members	entails being chairman of the	, of the American Societ of Newspaper Editors appeared	United States Intelligence
15 APRIL 1971	to consider it a greater coup	Board and head of the C.I.A. Mr. Helms was married 13 7/7 (12 ///	that Mr. Helms gave at their	several years ago to Cynthia convention his first public	McKelvie, 47. It is the second speech since becoming intelligence director in 1966 than	marriage for both. Mr. Helms that Mr. Nixon is scheduled	has a son, Dennis, who is a Washington lawyer, and Mrs.
	to address the meeting later	Helms has four children by this week.	her previous marriage.
	Reared in Jersey	The Helmses are frequent-
HS/HC- 228	Mr. Helms was born March	ly seen on the Washington
	. 30, 1913, in St. David's, Pa.,	social scene, at small em- bassy dinners and on the and reared in South Orange.	tennis courts.
	N.J. He spent two high school years in Switzerland and	Mrs. Helms once told a re-
	Germany, learning French	porter that she and her hus-and German as well as social	band liked to relax by read-
•	graces.	ing spy stories to each other for entertainment.
	He graduated from Williams	"They often are a bit far College in 1935 with an outstanding record as a Phi Beta	out, aren't they," she said record as a PNI Beta	with a smile	